

Saturday, November 4, 2017

10:00 – 10:45 a.m.

Tracy Baker, DTM

DTM Tracy Baker is president and CEO of Tracy Baker Media Professionals, a multifaceted multimedia and communications company specializing in positive, uplifting messages and programs about life. DTM Baker is a retired United States Air Force communications officer, mentor, motivational speaker, author, corporate trainer, life coach, educator, stand-up comedian and film director. He has been a Toastmaster since 1995 and received his DTM in July 2017.

DTM Baker credits God as the source and foundation of his inspiration. He translates that force into a customized, unorthodox, spellbinding experience to enlightening and entertaining people in any situation.

DTM Baker was commissioned a second lieutenant in the Air Force in June 1996. DTM Baker has deployed to Afghanistan and Qatar to fight terrorism in support of Operation Enduring Freedom and has had leadership roles in various commands around the world. He retired from active duty in December 2011 and started TBMPinc in 2012.

DTM Baker is a 1989 graduate of Meadowdale High School and holds a Master's degree in Telecommunications and a Bachelor of Science in Human Resources Management.

“Pancakes with Passion: How to Believe in Yourself, Build Your Club and Improve Your Life!”

This is an interactive 45 minute self-development and self-improvement seminar using “passion” to spice up your club, club meetings and your life. High-energy stories and exciting personal exercise designed to get you moving to the next level. Very interactive, mostly impromptu based upon audience participate. There will be guided discussion and handouts.